verse one:

I was on a hike walkin' all over this land
When I ran into a man who didn't have a head...band.
His hair was in his eyes when I met him on the trail,
So he was havin' trouble cuttin' off his toe...nail.

verse two:

I was on a boat on an ocean-going trek
When I saw a sailor dancin' on a poop...deck.
In the water was a mermaid
Wearin' nothin' but her skin,
And she turned out to be a livin' dol...phin.

chorus:

To make what you've heard
Not sound so absurd,
Don't make up your mind so fast.
Hang on till the very last word.

verse three:

She was lookin' sweet as any candy in a dish,
So I couldn't keep from givin' her a lic...orice.
We were playin' hide-and-seek
And looked behind a wall,
And saw a fella throwin' up a foot...ball.

verse four:

Daddy's always tellin' me that I'm his pride and joy.
That means a lot comin' from a cow...boy.
And Mama keeps her fancy saddle in the tackle shack.
She likes it but she'd rather ride bare...back.

(repeat chorus twice)
