

The Birthday Swing

© 2014 BatDuo Music

Woke up this morning looked into my back yard

Imagine my surprise with what I saw

It was red gigantic enormous thing, and on the end it had a swing

And down the side it had a great big slide

And in between the slide and the swing, and planted in the ground

Was the most stupendous set of monkey bars?

For a kid of 3 just like me, it was more than I could bear

It was a pilgrimage I headed for the stairs

Well I reached the door in seconds flat, forgot to even wear my hat

So focused was I on that giant swing

And down the steps across the lawn I streaked across the grass that morn

And finally I leaped onto that thingYipee

Happy Birthday to me, Happy Birthday to me Happy Birthday to me

Happy Birthday to me, Happy Birthday to me Happy Birthday to me
