

MY PRECIOUS ONE

- By Stephanie Bently and Par Astrom

My precious one, my tiny one, lay down your pretty head.
My dearest one, my sleepy one, its time to go to bed.

My precious one, my darling one don't let your lashes weep.
My cherished one my weary one it's time to go to sleep.

Just bow your head and give your cares to me.
Just close your eyes and fall into the sweetest dream, cause in my loving arms.
Your safe as you will ever be so hush my dear and sleep.

And in your dreams you'll ride on angels wings.
Dance with the stars and touch the face of god
And if you should awake I'll send you back to sleep.

My precious one, my tiny one, Ill kiss your little cheek
And underneath the smiling moon Ill sing you back to sleep

ROCK BYE BYE

-Words by Gertrude T. Clarke, music by William G. Dietrich – public domain

Rock-a-bye, baby, the moon is a cradle
A white- silver cradle hung up in the sky
The clouds are the pillows, so soft and so downy
The bright stars are candles. Rock-a-bye bye.
Rock-a-bye, baby, your eyes are so drowsy
For playtime is over and sleeptime is nigh
The sandman is coming to take you to Dreamland
So bye-low, my baby, rock-a-bye bye
