

SINGING

- Words by R.L. Stevenson, tune by Erica Zerbe

My oldest daughter made the tune up for this when she was 8 years old

Of speckled eggs the birdy sings, and nests among the trees

The sailor sings of ropes and things in ships upon the seas

The children sing in far Japan, the children sing in Spain

The organ with the organ man is singing in the rain.

I SEE THE MOON

- by Meredith Willson

Meredith Willson is the same man who wrote "The Music Man" and many other favorites!

I see the moon, the moon sees me

The moon sees the one I love to see

God bless the moon, and God bless me

And God bless the one I love

It seems to me that God above created you for me to love

And picked you out from all the rest because God knew I'd love you best
