

ANY OTHER KID

verse one:

I was at my worst, makin' no sense at all,
Rollin' up everything I'd ever done right,
Smashin' it against the wall,
Out of control, way too loud,
And downright rude—
A walking definition of a really bad attitude.

verse two:

Full of myself—everything was all about me.
Thinkin' that I was doin' anything wrong
Was not a possibility.
It must've been hard
Puttin' up with me back then.
No one else saw any future
In bein' my best friend.

chorus:

Any other kid
Woulda cut out on the double,
Said I wasn't worth the trouble,
And left me there.
But that's not what you did—

You stayed and talked me through it.
You cared enough to do it.
You're not just any other kid.

verse three:

When the dust all cleared,
You and me, eye to eye.
Maybe I didn't have a single excuse,
But I had a lotta reasons why.
The minute you stayed
And let me pour them out,
I got a whole new understanding
Of what all this might be about.

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

If you should ever need someone
The way I needed you,
I hope that I turn out to be
As good a friend as you were to me.

(repeat chorus)
