

TEASPOON AT A TIME

words and music by Paul Goldowitz and Dave Kinnoin

verse one:

It's too hard—too tough for me.
There ain't no way—no possibility.
It's no use 'cause I can't win.
I don't even know where to begin.
Just one chance to make it through
If my heart gives my head a little talkin' to.

chorus:

One, two, three, and countin',
A teaspoon at a time, we're gonna move
that mountain.
A teaspoon at a time.

verse two:

What is this? Let me see...
What did I do—little ol' me?
I could swear somethin' moved.
My situation has just improved.
Tried it once; I'll try it twice—
My head must've listened to my heart's advice.

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

Suddenly my path is clear,
And I sure like the view from here.
All at once it all adds up—
The mountain, me, and what can be.

(repeat chorus)
