verse one:

I'm headin' to the store now,
Ten blocks or maybe more now.
I'm tearin' up the sidewalk
'Cause I've got to keep keepin' on.
I'm clearin' out the dead zones,
Just jammin' with my headphones.
The rhythm of the moment
Let's you see me now, then I'm gone.

chorus:

Nuthin's 2 tuff when I stand up tall.
Nuthin's 2 tuff —I refuse to fall.
Nuthin's 2 tuff, and my smile is all you see.
Nuthin's 2 tuff for a kid like me.

verse two:

I'm workin' for my mother.
Check out my baby brother.
He's getting' kinda cranky,
So I lay him down for a nap.

I gently rub his back now.
It's time to hit the sack now.
He's driftin' off to dreamland
Where his little hands go clap, clap, clap.

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

I can do a lotta things,
But when I'm not enough,
I have family and friends to help me with stuff.
Teachers and doctors and people like that
Really come in handy, and I tip my hat.
Sometimes I get tired, so I take a breather.
Doesn't mean I'm loser, or a quitter, either.
I know who I am, and I just grow finer
'Cause I've learned to buckle down
And never be a whiner.

(repeat chorus)
