

IT'S YOU

words and music by Jimmy Hammer and Dave Kinnoin

verse one:

Early every morning, I feel my day begin.
You're lying there with snores to spare,
So softly on my skin.
Soon, we're nose to nose.
The sun begins to rise,
And everything this world can bring
Is shining in your eyes.

chorus:

It's you, my ever-faithful friend.
It's you. Oh, what a playful day
We're gonna spend!
We both belong in a happy song.
I'll stick with you—we can't go wrong.
I know who sees me through.
Oh, Maddie, it's you.

verse two:

First one out the back door!
Oh, yeah, the race is on!
Then I must go away.
You know I miss you when I'm gone.
I return at last and hold you oh so tight.
It's funny how your licks allow
My world to feel so right.

(repeat chorus)

bridge:

And when we both are dreaming
Of some wild and wondrous place,
It's your voice I hear. I kiss your smiling face.

(repeat chorus)
