

NO MATTER HOW SMALL

words and music by Randy Sharp and Dave Kinnoin

verse one:

Tiny starfish wash ashore.
Every new wave brings some more.
A little girl tries so hard to save them all,
No matter how small.

verse two:

Little cowboy dreams again
Of bustin' broncos 'cause now and then
All of us need to feel we're ten feet tall,
No matter how small.

bridge:

All grown up or still a child,
A lesson to the wise:
It's about what's in the heart,
And not about the size.

verse three:

Draw the covers. Lights go out,
And the last thing we think about
Will probably be some kindness we recall
That meant most of all,
No matter how small.
