

THAT THING

words and music by Randy Sharp & Dave Kinnoin
©2017 With Any Luck Music (BMI) and Song Wizard Music (ASCAP)

intro:

We've had lots of good times
Since our first hello,
Turning into friends along the way.
Now we're off on an adventure,
But before we go,
There's just one thing that I've got to say:
Please don't do that thing you always do.

verse one:

You know, that thing that's really lame,
That thing that you should never do again. Ever.
You think it's cool. Well, that's a shame.
Try to fight the urge, I'm beggin' you.
Please don't do that thing you always do.

verse two:

You know, that thing that I just hate,
That thing you seem to think is fall-down funny.
Be strong – resist. Don't take the bait.
I see it in your eyes you're wanting to,
But please don't do that thing you always do.

bridge:

How well I remember the first time you did it.
I faked a laugh, so I guess you thought
You prob'ly should do it a thousand times more.
It's a beautiful treasure that all will adore.
You'd finally found something the world's waiting for,
But let me assure you it's not.

verse three:

You know, that thing. Yeah, that's the one.
The one that makes me want to run away screamin',
But I'll gladly say, "What's done is done,"
If you'll give it up and get a clue.
Please don't do that thing you always do.
Please don't do that thing you always do.