

HAPPY TO HELP

words and music by Randy Sharp and Dave Kinnoin

©2017 With Any Luck Music (BMI) and Song Wizard Music (ASCAP)

verse one:

Hey, pal.

Hey, pal.

Whatcha doin'?

Not much, how 'bout you?

Thanks for askin'.

I've got too much to do.

I could really use some help today,

So, whaddya say?

Well, okay.

chorus:

I'd be happy to help, ready to go.

One little thing that you oughta know:

I'm gonna be takin' it slow—

I can't get sweaty.

Doctor says I'll have an attack.

One drop could put me flat on my back,

But anything else you need

And I'm your man

'Cause I'm happy to help you any way I can.

verse two:

Hey, pal.

Hey, pal.

What I need can be done with your brain.

Save your body any cause to complain.

I could really use some help today,

So, whaddya say?

Well, okay.

chorus two:

I'd be happy to help tackle a chore—

Nothing that I'd rather do more.

But something I should mention before

We get too busy:

I am prone to mental collapse

If I should strain a single synapse,

But anything else you need and I'm your man

'Cause I'm happy to help you any way I can.

bridge:

I hope you can feel my sincerity,
Always at hand, ever so true.
A friend such as myself is quite the rarity,
Yet, here I am. Lucky for you!

verse three:

Hey, pal.
Hey, pal.
I just figured it out. Tell ya what—
Turn around and kick yourself in the butt.
If you really wanna make my day,
Whaddya say?
Well, okay.

chorus three:

I'd be happy to help, eager to please.
The only thing is, I have a disease—
Lifting my legs, bending my knees
Makes me gassy.
One little kick strategically put
Could blow off a toe, or even a foot,
But anything else you need and I'm your man
'Cause I'm happy to help you any way—
I'm always there to save the day—
I'm happy to help you any way I can.