“Bessie Coleman”

Bessie Coleman, a black woman in the 1920’s
Had a dream to be a pilot and fly planes to make some money
But black women weren’t allowed in the flight schools of her day
So she learned some French, packed her bags, and left the U.S.A.

Airplane, Airplane, Airplane
Airplane flying high
Airplane, Airplane, Airplane
Airplane In the sky

Travelled to Paris, the earn a license
Studied with an ace
Daredevil maneuvers, loop de loops, dips, and figure eights
In time Bessie Coleman learned the art of aviation
Went back to New York City, became a media sensation
She blew away the audiences back in the U.S.A.
Bessie Coleman was a hero in the barnstorms of her day
People loved her everywhere, so much they called queen
She overcame the obstacles and never gave up her dream

Airplane, Airplane, Airplane
Airplane flying high
Airplane, Airplane, Airplane,
Airplane in the sky
